SUBJECT: Industry Test Uploads to Support dexosD

Effective December 1, 2018, the dexos® Test Registration Center (dTRC) will serve as GM's storage location for all dexosD engine and elastomer test data. To achieve that goal, GM is requesting that all test data, whether generated by GM or industry test methods, used to support dexosD requirements be uploaded to the dTRC. The dTRC capabilities have been enhanced to accommodate all engine and elastomer test methods included in the dexosD specification.
